Monday 14th October 2019

We transfer to Manchester airport for our flight to Venice. On arrival we transfer to the lovely 4* boutique hotel the American Dinesen. Once an abode for venetian merchants in the 18th century, now a stunning hotel, a perfect combination of design and tradition, elegance and sophistication. Enjoy an evening to relax in your hotel or explore the local restaurants and shops.

Tuesday 15th October 2019

After breakfast you will have a day to explore this beautiful city at your own leisure. Perhaps you'd like to take the Vaporetto ferry bus around the Grand Canal or visit the Doge's Palace with David. October is a lovely time to be in the city as we escape the summer crowds. (B)

Wednesday 16th October 2019

After breakfast, we transfer to Venice train station for the highlight of our journey, the iconic Venice Simplon-Orient-Express. Settle into your luxury carriage as we cross the lagoon of Venice. Enjoy a delicious lunch served in one of the beautiful restaurant cars whilst you marvel at the scenery passing by. Later, mingle with fellow passengers over cocktails before dinner as you pass by Innsbruck and into the Austrian Alps. (B,L,D)

Thursday 17th October 2019

Breakfast will be served in your cabin, as you watch the countryside turn to city as the train draws into Paris. Enjoy brunch en-route to the French coast. From Calais we board our coach for our Channel crossing. On arrival back into the UK we board the iconic Belmond British Pullman, famed for its period carriages and restored art-deco design. Enjoy a luxurious afternoon tea en-route to London where we disembark. Join our Regent transfer and journey back to Staffordshire with memories of a once in a lifetime tour. (B,L)

Venice Simplon-Orient-Express

Launched in 1883 and restored to life in 1982, the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express is still one of the most desired travel experiences in the world. Inside your authentic vintage cabins you will find an upper and lower berth bed, all finished with crisp damask sheets and fine blankets for your relaxed and restful atmosphere at night. During the day your cosy cabin will be transformed to a comfortable seating area where you can admire the spectacular views. Hidden behind oak panels you will find a washbasin and bathrobes ready to slip on for when you visit the mosaic-tiled lavatory at the end of your carriage.

Dine in style with the classical décor and vintage style surroundings around you. In keeping with the spirit of the occasion you can never be too overdressed, so celebrate the true joy of travel as you enjoy a more relaxed pace of a past era and become part of the saga.

Please note: Cabins are upper and lower berth (bunk-bed style) with private washbasins only. Toilets are located at both ends of each carriage. There are no showers/baths on the train.

4* Hotel American Dinesen, Venice

This 4* boutique hotel has an ideal location overlooking the picturesque canal of San Vio and boasts a strategic position in the heart of Venice, just a few steps away from the Grand Canal and main attractions of the city. The rooms are tastefully decorated with fine fabrics. Enjoy a cocktail on the hotels first floor terrace or relax for a moment of idyllic silence.

Bedrooms:

Traditional Venetian style with en-suite. Double bed may consist of two single beds.

Facilities:

Breakfast room and bar. Wi-Fi in public areas.

Mobility Information:

This tour may not be suitable for people with limited mobility issues as the city of Venice has lots of steps, bridges and cobbled streets. Our hotel has a lift to the first floor only and there are varying steps throughout the hotel.

Please note that the Orient-Express may not be suitable for those with mobility issues due to the movement of the train and limited space in corridors and cabins. All room requests will be noted but are not guaranteed. All health, dietary and mobility requests must be made at time of booking. Regent must be notified if health declines over the booking period.
