Tuesday 17th September 2019

We depart Staffordshire this morning and head to Weston-Super-Mare in Somerset. Stop for lunch (at own expense) in this seaside town before journeying onwards to Sidmouth, our home for the next 5 nights. Free time to freshen up before dinner. (D)

Wednesday 18th September 2019

Enjoy free time to explore Sidmouth today. Perhaps indulge in some retail therapy, stroll along the esplanade or through the pretty local gardens. (B,D)

Thursday 19th September 2019

After breakfast we head to Seaton to join the narrow-gauge electric Tramway along to Colyton, which will give scenic views over the Wetlands. We later head to Lyme Regis, known as 'The Pearl of Dorset' and famous for its harbour wall, 'The Cobb', which is featured in both Jane Austen's novel 'Persuasion' & 'The French Lieutenant's Woman' by John Fowles. Dinner at our hotel. (B,D)

Friday 20th September 2019

Enjoy a day at leisure or join our optional excursion on the famous 'Round Robin' trip from Paignton to Totnes, travelling by both river boat and steam train with the Dartmouth Steam Railway & River Boat Company (at additional expense, details to be advised nearer departure date). Offering stunning views of the British coast, this is a real trip highlight. Return to our hotel for dinner. (B,D)

Saturday 21st September 2019

We have free time to explore Exmouth this morning, before heading to the Grade 1 listed Bicton Park Botanic Gardens. The gardens here have over 300 years of horticultural history. Ride the Woodland Railway here before we indulge in a Regent treat - a traditional Devonshire cream tea! (B,D)

Sunday 22nd September 2019

After breakfast we journey home via Bristol, a modern city with a fascinating nautical and engineering history. Free time for lunch before we return to Staffordshire, arriving home late afternoon. (B)

4* Bedford Hotel, Sidmouth

Regency elegance and modern comfort combine at this family-run seaside hotel, which was one of the first Regency houses built on Sidmouth's seafront. Enjoy excellent views over Lyme Bay and the Jurassic Coast.
