Friday 22nd March 2019

We depart Staffordshire this morning and head to Stowe House in Buckingham. In the 18th Century, the richest family in England the Temple-Grenville family, chose to construct a picturesque landscape filled with temples. Queen Victoria was astonished by Stowe House as it became the most lavish temple of all. However, wealth and power did not last forever. Their fancy parties, royal visits and excessive spending led to bankruptcy. Stowe House once belonged to the most rich family and also, the greatest debtors in the world. In 1922, Stowe House faced demolition however, it found a new and refreshed use as a school for boys and girls. In 1997, the Stowe House Preservation Trust was established. See the estate as you would if you were a visitor in the 1800s. We then take the journey to our hotel, Holiday Inn London Kensington High Street. Enjoy your evening at leisure.

Saturday 23rd March 2019

After breakfast you have a free day to explore London. Hyde Park is a 10 minute walk away, why not relax, unwind and have lunch (at own expense) in Hyde Park? Alternatively, Harrods is a 30 minute walk away and has plenty of luxurious departments for everybody. Or take the tube to Westminster, the home to Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, Houses of Parliament, Horse Guards Parade, Downing Street and the London Eye and take in the wonderful sights. After why not take a walk through Whitehall to see Trafalgar Square. We then meet back at the hotel and take a short walk to the Royal Albert Hall for our Classical Spectacular Show.
