Itinerary & Ports of Call

Friday 28th June 2019

Depart Staffordshire and head to Liverpool dock ready to set sail.

Saturday 29th June & Sunday 30th June 2019

Relax at sea. Explore the many relaxing facilities on board ms Black Watch.

Monday 1st July 2019

This morning we arrive in Reykjavik, Iceland's vibrant capital city, surrounded by picturesque natural wonders such as Geyser hot springs, Gullfoss waterfall and the famous Blue Lagoon. Filled with Viking history and cultural gems such as Hallgrímskirkja church, there is plenty to see and do here.

Tuesday 2nd July 2019

Isafjörður is our first destination today, known for dramatic landscapes and maritime history. See traditional wooden houses built by 18th-century fishing merchants dotting the landscape. Later we enjoy gentle cruising by Homstrandir (known as the 'King & Queen of Cliffs') and Drangaskörö, with its dragon-tail pinnacles - both prominent landmarks and truly unique sights.

Wednesday 3rd July 2019

Another morning of gentle cruising through Eyjafjörður, Iceland's longest fjord, to the town of Akureyri. Explore this cultural hub, perfect for nature and art lovers and filled with interesting art galleries and modern cafes.

Thursday 4th July 2019

Enjoy scenic cruising along the calm waters of remote Seyðisfjörður. This afternoon we dock and visit the traditional town of the same name.

Friday 5th July & Saturday 6th July 2019

Relax at sea. Marvel at the striking coastline and spot wildlife as we sail gently back to Liverpool.

Sunday 7th July 2019

Return to Liverpool with wonderful memories of the iconic 'Land of Fire & Ice'.

ms Black Watch

Black Watch provides a high-quality traditional cruising experience with great service & charm. With just 804 guests, she has plenty of room for relaxation and entertainment on your voyage.
